(2) Whoever contravenes the provisions of sub-section (1) shall be punished with imprisonment of either description which may extend to ten years but shall not be less than three years and shall also be liable to fine not exceeding one million rupees.

4. Punishment for Abetment.— Whoever intentionally and willfully abets, engages, assists or aids the money lender in lending money or in recovery of interest or in interest based transaction in contravention of sub-section (1) of section 3 shall also be liable to the same punishment as provided in sub-section (2) of section 3 of this Act.

5. Punishment for Molestation.— Whoever molests any borrower or debtor, whether on his own behalf or on behalf of anybody else with intention to force such borrower or debtor to pay back any loan or debt or any part thereof or any interest thereupon, shall be punished with imprisonment of either description for a term which may extend to five years and shall also be liable to fine up to five hundred thousand rupees.

6. Complaint.— A justice of peace shall, within three days on receipt of any application or complaint with regard to the commission of an offence under this Act, order the local police to register a case against such person or group of persons.

7. Liability to pay interest on debt to stand extinguished.— On the commencement of this Act, every obligation of any debtor or borrower to pay interest on debt or such part of interest shall stand extinguished.

8. Offences to be tried by Court.— No Court inferior to that of Judicial Magistrate of the first class shall try an offence under this Act.

9. Cognizance of offences.— Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Code or any other law for the time being in force an offence under this Act shall be cognizable, non-compoundable and non-bail able.

10. Adjustment of principal amount.— The trial court, if it is proved that the money lender committed an offence under this Act, shall order that the interest already paid to the money lender is considered as payment towards the principal amount:

Provided that where the amount of interest paid by a borrower exceeds the principal amount, the court shall order the money lender to return such excess amount to the borrower.

11. Recovery of sums.— Where penalty imposed on money lender under this Act or the amount ordered to be returned, is not paid,—

- (a) the Court may order to recover the amount so payable by selling the assets belonging to such person; and
- (b) in case the amount cannot be recovered from such person in the manner provided in paragraph (a) the Court may prepare and sign a certificate specifying the amount due from such person and send it to the collector of the district in which such person owns any property or resides or carries on business; and the collector of the district on receipt of such certificate shall proceed to recover from the said person the amount specified in the certificate as if it is an arrear of land revenue.

12. Appeal.— Save as provided, any person aggrieved by any decision given, sentence passed or order made by the trial court under this Act, may within thirty days of such decision, sentence or order prefer an appeal under the provisions contained in chapter XXXI of the Code.

13. Power to deposit in Court money due on loan.— (1) Where any lender, whether a money lender as defined in this Act or otherwise, refuses to accept the whole or any portion of the money or other property due in respect of his loan without payment of interest, the debtor may deposit the said money or property into the Court having jurisdiction to entertain a suit for recovery of such loan and apply to the Court record full or part satisfaction of the loan, as the case may be.

(2) Where any such application is made, the Court shall, after due inquiry, pass orders recording full or part-satisfaction of the loan as the case may be.

(3) The procedure laid down in the Code of Civil Procedure 1908 (Act No. V of 1908), for the trial of suits shall, as far as may be, apply to applications under this section.

(4) An appeal shall lie from an order passed by a Court under sub-section (2) within thirty days excluding the time for obtaining a certified copy of the order as if such an order relates to the execution, discharge or satisfaction of a decree within the meaning of section 47 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (Act No. V of 1908).

14. Act to override other laws, etc.— The provisions of this Act shall have effect notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force or in any instrument having effect by virtue of any such law.

15. Indemnity.— No suit, prosecution or other legal proceeding shall lie against any person for anything which is in good faith done or intended to be done in pursuance of this Act or of any rules made thereunder.

16. Power to make rules.— The Federal Government may make rules for carrying out the purposes of this Act.

17. Interpretation.— In the interpretation and application of the provisions of this Act, and in respect of matter ancillary or akin thereto, the Court shall follow the injunctions of Islam as laid down in the Holy Qur'an and Sunnah.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The injunctions of Islam as laid down in the Holy Qur'an and Sunnah have explicitly and unequivocally prohibited charging interest on loans and have declared war against those who do not abandon interest;

The Constitution of the Islamic Republic of Pakistan obliges the State to take steps to enable the Muslims of Pakistan, individually and collectively, to order their lives in accordance with the fundamental principles and basic concepts of Islam and to provide facilities whereby they may be enabled to understand the meaning of life according to the Holy Qur'an and Sunnah;

It is expedient to make a comprehensive Legislation on the subject for covering all the aspects of the mischief of private money lending and matters akin thereto;

Interest base loans have badly affected the already poor economic condition of people of Pakistan. Due to private loan transactions public is molested by the lenders who are unable to pay even principal amount.

Lenders continuously harass to recover the amount with multiplied interest amount.

This Bill seeks to achieve the above cited objectives.
