SUMMARY

The proposed legislation was discussed in detail. The Mover briefed that attempt to commit suicide is the symptom of a diseased state of mind and requires mental health interventions, but at present it continues to be treated as a criminal offence under section 325 of the Pakistan Penal Code. Therefore there is a need for decriminalizing the attempted suicide by omitting section 325 of the Pakistan Penal Code, 1860 and provisions relating to section 325 in code of Criminal Procedure, 1898. The Committee viewed it as a diseased state of mind requiring proper treatment and the patient can be fully rehabilitated to lead a healthy and happy life.

RECOMMENDATION

The Committee disposed of the Bill with the recommendation that the Bill may be passed as proposed by the Mover. The Bill is annexed.

[AS INTRODUCED IN THE SENATE]

BILL

further to amend the Pakistan Penal Code, 1860 and the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Pakistan Penal Code, 1860 (XLV of 1860) and the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (V of 1898) for the purposes hereinafter appearing;

It is hereby enacted as follows:-

1. Short title and commencement.-(1) This Act may be called the Criminal Laws (Amendment) Act, 2017.

(2) It shall come into force at once.

2. Omission of section 325, Act XLV of 1860.-In the Pakistan Penal Code, 1860 (XLV of 1860), section 325 shall be omitted.

3. Amendment of Schedule II, Act V of 1898.- In the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (V of 1898), in Schedule II, the entries relating to section 325 shall be omitted.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Attempt to commit suicide is the last stage of frustration. It is the duty of the welfare State to provide relief to its citizens instead of criminalizing the one who is already suffering. It is, therefore, expedient to omit section 325 of the Pakistan Penal Code, 1860, the entries relating to section 325 in Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 and provide rehabilitation facilities.

The Bill strives to achieve the aforesaid objectives.
