- i. The House may discuss the curfew and lockdown in Srinagar which continues unabated and enters into more than 80 days and efforts/future strategy of the Government of Pakistan in this regard;
- ii. The House may discuss the recent wave of alleged political victimization and denial of fundamental rights to members of Opposition parties and revocation of citizenship of a former member of Parliament;
- iii. The House may discuss the Government's decision to dissolve PMDC through an Ordinance, inspite of the fact that a similar Ordinance was earlier rejected by the Senate of Pakistan, which has gravely affected the medical fraternity, crippled the health system and made hundreds of PMDC employees jobless overnight;
- iv. The House may discuss the alleged censorship and dictatorial bans on media which is a direct attack on the fundamental right of freedom of speech and thus a violation of Article 19 of the Constitution; and
- v. The House may discuss the stumbling economic situation, unabated price increases, and rising gas and electricity prices, which are adding to the miseries of the common Pakistanis.
