9.	Senator Mustafa Nawaz Khokar	Member
10.	Senator Sana Jamali	Member
11.	Senator Walid Iqbal	Member
12.	Senator Zeeshan Khanzada	Member
13.	Minister for Law and Justice	Ex-Officio Member

3. The Committee considered the Bill in its meetings held on 24th January, 2020 and 13th February, 2020 under the Chairmanship of Senator Muhammad Javed Abbasi. Final consideration of the Bill was held in the meeting dated 13th February, 2020, which was attended by the following members:-

- i. Senator Muhammad Javed Abbasi
- ii. Senator Ghous Muhammad Khan Niazi
- iii. Senator Siraj ul Haq
- iv. Senator Syed Muzafar Hussain Shah
- v. Senator Zeeshan Khanzada
- vi. Senator Sana Jamali

4. The Secretary Ministry of Law and Justice briefed the Committee that the purpose of this Bill, introduced by the Government, is to establish a Legal Aid and Justice Authority (Authority) which shall provide legal, financial or other assistance and access to justice to the poor and vulnerable segments of the society in criminal cases. The Authority shall replace the deficient mechanism of judges and bureaucrats assessing/dispensing legal aid. As the law is applicable to criminal cases, it shall apply to whole of Pakistan. The head office of the Authority shall be in Islamabad and it will have as many offices all over the country as it deems fit. The Authority will have a Board that will administer the Authority. The Board will have representation of all the provinces. The day to day affairs and any functions assigned by the Board of the Authority will be managed by an appointed Director General. The Director General will have the same qualification as that of High Court Judge. The Authority is empowered to raise awareness in the society about their legal rights and to provide legal aid to the ones who are unable to retain a lawyer for themselves. Those who are unable to afford legal representation or pay for bail amounts or penalties/ fines in criminal cases will rank for legal aid. Disadvantaged women and children will be given preference, especially in case of sexual gender based violence (SGBV) and other serious offences. The eligibility criteria to apply for legal aid will be defined from time to time. A charged criminal offender can make an application for legal aid along with an affidavit plus certain documents as prescribed by the Authority. If the Authority comes to the conclusion that any documents submitted by an applicant are said to be false then, the Authority has the power to revoke the aid for that specific applicant. A panel of advocates including the Free Representation Unit, Will be monitored by the Authority and will work in all districts in Pakistan. A fund for the Authority will be created and will be financed by the government, or contributions from international institutions or corporations or other sources.

5. The Committee held extensive discussions. Senator Ghous Muhammad Khan Niazi drew attention towards provincial legislation of Punjab in this regard and stated that it shall be ensured that this Federal Law shall not rendered the provincial mechanism of granting aid dysfunctional. Senator Siraj ul Haq proposed that Members of Senate and National Assembly shall also be included in the composition of the Board. The Committee supported the suggestion made by Senator Siraj ul Haq and recommended that in Clause 5 of the Bill in sub-clause (1), after paragraph (ii), the following paragraphs (iii) and (iv) shall be inserted and remaining paragraphs shall be renumbered accordingly:-

“(iii) One Member from the Senate of Pakistan to be nominated by the Chairman Senate

Member

- (iv) One Member of the National Assembly Member to be appointed by the Speaker National Assembly"

6. The Bill, as amended was unanimously passed by the Committee.

7. The Committee recommends that "The Legal Aid and Justice Authority Bill, 2020", as passed by the National Assembly and introduced in the Senate, as reported by the Committee may be passed by the Senate of Pakistan. (The Bill reported by the Committee is annexed as "A" and the Bill as passed by the National Assembly and introduced in the Senate is annexed as "B").

(2) Notwithstanding the repeal under sub-section (1), all funds and accounts constituted and maintained under the repealed Act shall be deemed to be in continuation of the corresponding funds and accounts constituted or maintained under this Act.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

is a constitutional right of every citizen to consult and engage a lawyer to defend themselves. Article 37(d) of the Constitution guarantees that the State shall ensure inexpensive and expeditious justice to its citizens. The object of this Bill is to establish a legal and institutional framework to promote access to justice by providing affordable, accessible, sustainable, credible and accountable legal aid, financial or other services to the poor and vulnerable section of the society in criminal matters. This will also help to promote legal awareness, education and public awareness of the legal aid system. The Bill gives priority to disadvantaged women and children, especially in matters of sexual offences. Apart from the provision of legal aid, the Bill also facilitates the extension of financial facilities such as provision of bail, fine and penalty amounts to the poor. Hence this Bill.

(2) Notwithstanding the repeal under sub-section (1), all funds and accounts constituted and maintained under the repealed Act shall be deemed to be in continuation of the corresponding funds and accounts constituted or maintained under this Act.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

... is a constitutional right of every citizen to consult and engage a lawyer to defend themselves. Article 37(d) of the Constitution guarantees that the State shall ensure inexpensive and expeditious justice to its citizens. The object of this Bill is to establish a legal and institutional framework to promote access to justice by providing affordable, accessible, sustainable, credible and accountable legal aid, financial or other services to the poor and vulnerable section of the society in criminal matters. This will also help to promote legal awareness, education and public awareness of the legal aid system. The Bill gives priority to disadvantaged women and children, especially in matters of sexual offences. Apart from the provision of legal aid, the Bill also facilitates the extension of financial facilities such as provision of bail, fine and penalty amounts to the poor. Hence this Bill.
