RESOLUTION NO. 305

Enhancement of Role and Powers of Senate of Pakistan—to protect the rights of the federating units and provide a meaningful participation to the Provinces and other territories in the affairs of the Federation

“WHEREAS the Constitution, 1973, gave expression to the long and arduous struggle of the peoples for a democratic, parliamentary and federal structure;

WHEREAS the Constitution, 1973, in the federal tradition created two coequal Houses of Parliament, the Senate – Provinces having equal seats allocated and other territories of the federation being represented, the National Assembly – having seats allocated to the provinces and the other territories of the federation on population basis;

WHEREAS the Constitution, 1973, in its scheme for the Senate envisaged:

- i) That the voting rights of the Provinces will be equal irrespective of population;
- ii) that through this mechanism provincial autonomy will be secured and preserved;
- iii) that the Provinces and the other territories will be co-authors of legislation that effects their economic, political and cultural rights;
- iv) that through parliamentary and other constitutional instruments, control and supervision over their natural resources and items listed in the Federal Legislative List Part-II, Constitution, 1973, will be exercised;
- v) that to provide representation to all shades of political opinion reflected in the Provincial Assemblies at the federal level.

WHEREAS the Eighteenth Constitutional Amendment reaffirms the principles of democratic, parliamentary and federal structure. It widened the concepts of participatory federalism, joint ownership of natural resources, collective management and supervision of items in Federal Legislative List Part-II, Constitution, 1973, and dispute resolution.

WHEREAS to effectively enforce participatory federalism, ensure provincial autonomy, provide a meaningful participation to the Provinces and other territories in the affairs of the Federation and to materialize a constitutional command, there is a need to revisit the legislative competence, parliamentary oversight and other functions of the Senate of Pakistan in particular its relationship with the Provinces.
