

SENATE OF PAKISTAN

RULES OF PROCEDURE AND CONDUCT OF BUSINESS IN THE SENATE 2012

(As amended upto 28th December, 2015)

P R E F A C E

Rules of Procedure and Conduct of Business are ‘standing orders’ whereby the business in the House, Committees and other Parliamentary functions are conducted in an organized and disciplined manner. The Senate of Pakistan, immediately after its establishment in 1973, adopted the Rules of Procedure and Conduct of Business in the Senate, 1973 which were repealed when Rules of Procedure and Conduct of Business in the Senate, 1988 were adopted. The Rules currently in force in the Senate are the one’s adopted by the Senate of Pakistan on 8th March, 2012.

The major change or addition in these rules, since March 2012, is incorporation of a whole set of new rules for establishment of Senate Forum for Policy Research (rule 269 to 276). Other changes since March, 2012 are in the Zero Hour and Calling Attention Notice (rules 61 & 64 respectively).

This edition of the Rules is being published on the eve of renewal of Senate after election of half of its membership in March, 2015. For the facilitations of members come IT based initiatives are also being taken to ensure easy access to these rules as and when required. Better understanding and adherence to the Rules of Procedure and Conduct of Business in the Senate will definitely enhance Parliamentary practice and performance.

AMJED PERVEZ
Secretary

Islamabad, the 10th February, 2015.

FOREWORD

In pursuance of clause (2) of Article 67 of the Constitution, the Senate made the Rules of Procedure and Conduct of Business in the Senate, 1988, which remained in force for twenty four years.

Due to various amendments made in the Constitution, changed political scenario and experience gained over time, it became imperative to carry out necessary revision of the existing rules including addition of some new rules. The revised rules were unanimously passed by the Senate on 8th March, 2012.

It is placed on record that the keen interest and valuable contribution made by members of both the 2006-2009 and the 2009-2012 Committee on Rules of Procedure and Privileges, headed by me. The collective wisdom, support and cooperation of the whole House extended to me and to the Committee helped to streamline our effort.

I must mention the professional guidance, contribution and input of Chairman Senate Mr. Farooq H. Naek and the support he extended to the entire exercise. I thank Secretary Senate, Mr. Iftikhar Ullah Babar, former Secretary Senate, Raja Muhammad Amin and their staff for their keen eye and whole hearted cooperation.

The untiring, constant and valuable contribution of Mr. Mehboob Ali, Additional Secretary, Senate and Secretary of the Committee, needs very special mention. His pain's taking efforts helped immensely to bring this herculean book to fruition.

It is hoped that the new rules will not only update and streamline the procedure and conduct of business in the Senate but also help in establishing true and sustainable democracy in the country and greatly enhance the honour, dignity and prestige of the Senate.

THIRD SCHEDULEPROCEDURE REGARDING VOTING BY DIVISION

(See rule 238)

When the minority desires a division and the Chairman is satisfied that the demand for the division is not an abuse of the rules, he will order a division to be held by uttering the word "Division" and shall direct that the division bells be rung for two minutes to enable members not present in the Chamber to return to their places; immediately after the bells stop ringing, all the entrances to the Lobby will be locked and the Senate staff posted at each entrance will not allow any entry or exist through these entrances until the division has concluded. The Chairman will then read the terms of the motion before the Senate and put the question for a second time. If the division is still demanded, he will say "Ayes to the right, Noes to the left; divide".

2. According as they wish to vote, members will then proceed to the Ayes or the Noes Lobby and there pass in single file before the tellers appointed by the Chairman. On reaching the desk of the tellers, each member will, in turn, call out the division number which will be allotted to him for this purpose. The tellers will then mark off this number on the division list simultaneously calling out the name of the member. In order to ensure that his vote has been properly recorded, the member should not move off until he has clearly heard the teller thus call out his name. The Division number allotted to each member will be communicated separately. The number will be marked on the seat-card of each member.

3. When the voting process as described above is completed in the division lobbies, the tellers will present their division lists to the Secretary who will count the votes recorded thereon and then present the total of the "Ayes" and "Noes" to the Chairman. The Chairman will then announce the result to the Senate. The division will not be at an end until the result is so announced. If the members of "Ayes" and "Noes" are equal, the question will be decided by the casting vote of the Chairman.
