STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The belief of absolute and unqualified finality of the Prophethood of Muhammad (Peace Be Upon Him) is one of the basic tenets of Islam without which no one can remain Muslim. Muslims in general and the people of Pakistan in particular never bear any intervention in this belief. The State and its laws are bound to protect this basic belief of Islam according to the aspiration of the Muslims of this country. In order to protect this belief from the intruders, it is needed to enlist those as non-Muslims in electoral rolls who are not believing in the absolute and unqualified finality of the Prophethood of Muhammad (Peace Be Upon Him), or who follow anyone who claims to be a Prophet in any sense of the word or of any description whatsoever after Prophet Muhammad (Peace Be Upon Him) or recognizes such a claimant to be Prophet or a religious reformer. Through this amendment, the intruders who disbelieve the absolute and unqualified finality of the Prophethood of Muhammad (Peace Be Upon Him) will be prevented to enlist as Muslims in the electoral rolls.

The Bill has been designed to achieve the aforesaid objectives.
