such in the prescribed form, shall on payment of the prescribed fee, make an application to the registration authority, accompanied by a copy of the constitution of the agency and such other documents as may be prescribed.

(5) No charity shall be registered by a name that in the opinion of the registration authority is designed to ethnically exploit or offend any class of people.

(6) No charity shall, except for reasons to be recorded in writing by the registration authority, be registered by a name that contains any words indicating—

- (a) any connections with the Federal Government or a provincial government or district government or any authority or corporation of such government or that of armed forces, judiciary, Senate, National Assembly or a Provincial Assembly;
- (b) any linkage or renaming of proscribed organization or having linkage with a proscribed individual; or
- (c) the patronage of, or any connection with, any foreign government or any international government or multi lateral organization.

(7) A charity which, through inadvertence or otherwise, is registered by a name in contravention of the provisions of sub-section (5) or sub-section (6) shall —

- (a) with approval of the registration authority, change its name; and
- (b) if the registration authority so directs, within thirty days of the receipt of such direction, change its name with the approval of the registration authority.

(8) Any person or charity affected by the decision of the registration authority under sub-section (5), (6) or (7) may prefer an appeal to the appellate authority within sixty days of receipt of such decision and the decision thereon of the appellants authority shall be final.

(9) The registration authority shall, within ninety days from the receipt of the application for registration, issue a certificate of registration or intimate to the charity or organization applying for registration of the deficiencies in the application for registration submitted by it on account of which the charity or organization cannot be registered or provide written reasons for rejection of the application.

(10) Where intimation of flaw in its application is provided to a charity or an organization that has applied for registration, it shall within thirty days redress the deficiencies and resubmit its application, without the payment of fresh registration fee.

(11) Where the specified time of thirty days elapsed as per sub-section (10), fresh application alongwith prescribed fee for registration shall have to be submitted by the intending charity or organization.

(12) If the registration authority has not intimated a charity or an organization about the flaw in its application and intimation about the rejection of the application along with reasons having been recorded in writing within ninety days, the application shall be deemed to have been accepted and a certificate of registration shall be issued to the charity or organization.

(13) In the event of rejection of the application for registration, an appeal may be preferred to the appellant authority within thirty days of the receipt of the orders of rejection and the appellant authority shall decide the appeal within sixty days and the decision of which shall be final.

(14) The registration authority may, by notification in the official Gazette, specify in the prescribed manner the registration fee payable.

6. Validity period of registration certificate.— (1) A certificate of registration issued by the registration authority shall be valid for one year from the date of issuance which shall be renewable every year on submission of annual progress report, audited accounts for the preceding year, application form, annual fee and such other documents as may be prescribed.

(2) Application for renewal of certificate shall have to be submitted to the registration authority thirty days in advance of completion of following year of registration of the charity concerned.

(3) Conditions specified in section 5 shall also be applicable to the application for renewal of registration certificate alongwith any other condition that may be specified by the registration authority.

7. Charter of a charity.—Every charity or organization seeking registration shall, alongwith the application for registration under this Act, file with the registration authority its charter, which shall contain the following, namely:—

- (a) name of the charity or organization;
- (b) objectives of the charity or organization;

- (c) names and addresses of the initial three signatories of the charter as well as the names and addresses of the members of the governing body of the charity or organization at the time that application for registration is made;
- (d) manner in which membership of the charity or organization be acquired and lost;
- (e) manner in which the governing body, by whatever name described, shall come into existence and function; and
- (f) qualifications and disqualifications of any person continuing as a member of the governing body of the charity or organization.

8. Amendments in the charter of a registered charity.— (1) No amendment in the charter of a registered charity shall be valid unless it has been approved by two-third majority of its general body members and thereafter by the registration authority, for which purpose a copy of the amendment shall be forwarded to the registration authority.

(2) If the registration authority is satisfied that any amendment in the charter is not contrary to any of the provisions of this Act or the rules or regulations made thereunder, it may approve the amendment.

(3) Where the registration authority approves an amendment in the charter, it shall issue to the charity a certified copy of the amendment, which shall be conclusive evidence that the same is duly approved.

(4) Any change in the charter of a charity that has been disapproved by the registration authority shall cease to be effective immediately from the date of disapproval communicated to the organization concerned.

(5) An appeal against an order of the registration authority disapproving a change in the purpose or purposes of a charity may be preferred to the appellate authority within thirty days of the receipt of the order of the registration authority which shall be placed before the appellant authority for decision, thereon which shall be final.

9. Conditions to be complied with by registered charity.— (1) Every registered charity shall —

- (a) maintain book of accounts in a manner laid down by the registration authority in prescribed manner;
- (b) at such time and in such manner as may be prescribed, submit its annual report and annual audited accounts to the registration authority and publish the same and place it on its web-site for general information;

- (c) pay all moneys, received by it, into a separate account kept in its name at any branch of any scheduled bank;
- (d) furnish to the registration authority such particulars with regard to accounts and other records as the registration authority may from time to time require;
- (e) specifically mention financial contributors for activities of the charity; and
- (f) have its own web-site within ninety days from the date of issuance of registration certificate to be linked with database of charities of the registration authority. The web-site shall contain all information regarding constitution of the charity, names and brief introduction of executive members, year-wise financial quantum and details of the projects undertaken by the charity during the preceding three years of reporting and list of its funding partners.

(2) The registration authority, or any officer duly authorized by it in this behalf, may at all reasonable times visit the office of or any of the facility or project run by that charity to ascertain the working and progress of charity and examine its books of account and other records, the securities, cash and other properties held by a charity and all documents relating thereto. Any refusal by a charity to authorize such visit or any breach of the conditions laid down in subsection (1) may result in deregistration of a charity.

(3) Words in respect of a registered charity of the fact that it is a registered charity shall be stated in Urdu and English in legible characters alongwith its registration number,—

- (a) in all notices, advertisements, correspondences and other documents issued by or on behalf of the charity and soliciting money or other property for fulfilment of aims and objectives of the charity;
- (b) in all bills of exchange, promissory notes, endorsements, cheques and orders for money or goods purporting to be signed on behalf of the charity; and
- (c) in all bills rendered by it and in all its invoices, receipts and letters of credit.

(4) Any person who issues or authorizes the issuance of any document falling within clause (a), (b) or (c) of sub-section (3) in which the fact that the charity is a registered body is not stated as required by that sub-section, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred thousand Rupees.

10. Suspension or dissolution of executive bodies of registered charities.— (1) After making such inquiries as it may deem appropriate, if the registration authority is satisfied that the registered charity has been responsible for any irregularity in respect of its funds or for any mal-administration in the conduct of its affairs or has failed to comply with the provisions of this Act or rules or regulations made thereunder, it may, by order in writing, suspend or dissolve the governing body thereof.

(2) Where a governing body is suspended under sub-section (1), the registration authority shall appoint an administrator or a caretaker body consisting of not more than five persons, two from the government and three from the general body of the charity, who shall not be eligible for any appointment in the governing body for the next term.

(3) The administrator or caretaker body appointed under sub-section (2) shall have all the authority and powers of the governing body under the constitution of the charity to carry out the day to day activities of the charity.

(4) The governing body against which an order of suspension or dissolution is made under sub-section (1) may make appeal to the appellate authority against such order, which shall have the power to make such orders as to the re-instatement of the executive body within thirty days from the date of receipt of such appeal and the decision of the appellant authority shall be final.

11. De-registration of registered charity.— (1) If at any time, the registration authority has reason to believe that a registered charity is acting in contravention of its charter or contrary to any of the provisions of this Act or the rules or the regulations made thereunder or in a manner prejudicial to the interests of the public, the state or its institutions, it may order that the charity shall stand de-registered and removed from the register on and from such date as may be specified in the order:

Provided that no order under this sub-section shall be made unless an opportunity of being heard is provided to the charity.

(2) The executive body of a charity on behalf of that charity against whom an order of de-registration is made under sub-section (1) may make an appeal to the appellate authority within thirty days of the receipt of the order, which shall have the power to make such orders as to the re-instatement or endorsement of the decision of registration authority as it may think fit within ninety days from the date of receipt of such appeal and the decision thereon of the appellate authority shall be final.

12. Voluntary dissolution of registered charity.— (1) No registered charity shall be dissolved by the executive body or members thereof.

(2) If it is proposed to dissolve any registered charity, not less than three-fifths of its executive body members may apply to the registration authority in such manner as may be prescribed, for making an order for the dissolution of such charity.

(3) The registration authority may allow de-registration after examination of the charter, accounts and other prescribed documents of the charity and remove that charity from the register on and from such date as may be specified in the order.

(4) In the event of a delay of more than one hundred and eighty days in the determination of the application for de-registration moved by a charity, the application shall be deemed to have been accepted unless reasons for the delay are recorded in writing by the registration authority. Such delay shall in no case be more than ninety days beyond the specified original period of one hundred and eighty days.

(5) Appeal against an order to de-register or an order refusing to de-register, passed by the registration authority may be preferred within thirty days of receipt of the order to the appellate authority for placing the same before appellate authority the decision thereon of which shall be final.

13. Consequences of de-registration and voluntary dissolution.— Where any charity is dissolved or de-registered under section 10 or 11, its registration thereunder shall stand cancelled on and from the date of the order of dissolution takes effect and the registration authority may –

- (a) order any bank or other person who hold moneys, securities or other assets on behalf of the charity not to part with such moneys, securities and assets without the prior permission in writing of the registration authority;
- (b) appoint a competent person to wind up the affairs of such charity, with power to institute and defend suits and other legal proceedings on behalf of such charity and to make such orders and take such action as may appear to him to be necessary for the purpose; and
- (c) order any moneys, securities and assets remaining after the satisfaction of all debts and liabilities of such charity to be paid or transferred to such other charity, having objects similar to the objects of the charity, as may be specified in the order.

14. Rights of registered charity.— (1) The property, movable and immovable, belonging to a charity registered under this Act shall be vested in the governing body. In all proceedings, civil and criminal, such property may be described as the property of charity.

(2) Every charity registered under this Act may sue or be sued in the name of the person or persons authorized and designated, for this purpose by the charter or the rules and regulations of a charity and in default of such authorization in the name of such person as shall be appointed by the governing body for the occasion.

(3) Every charity registered under this Act may solicit public donations subject to the fulfilment of conditions, regulations and rules made under this Act and may—

- (a) apply for tax exemptions in the manner prescribed by the Federal Board of Revenue; and
- (b) enter into agreements with the state and private parties for the realization of aims and objectives specified in its charter.

15. Register of charities.— (1) The registration authority shall, in respect of certificate of registration issued under this Act, maintain a register containing such particulars as may be prescribed.

(2) The registration authority shall keep a manual register of charities, as well as a database of all registered charities in an electronic form, which shall be kept in such manner as may be prescribed.

(3) Any charity which ceases to exist or operate shall be removed from the register, provided a one month notice is served to such a charity to provide it an opportunity to produce documentary evidence of its existence for the purpose for which it was created.

(4) Any charity which does not obtain its annual renewal certificate as required under section 6 shall deem to be considered an unregistered and illegal entity and its name from the register shall be removed.

16. Appellate authority.— The chief commissioner, Islamabad Capital Territory shall be the appellate authority to hear and decide appeals preferred under this Act.

17. Financial irregularity.— (1) On receipt of a complaint in writing alleging financial irregularities supported by one-third of the members of the governing body of registered charity or from a person or body that had contributed more than five percent of the total funds received by the charity in the last year for which final accounts are available, the registration authority, after giving the charity an opportunity of being heard, authorize an external auditor to carry out within sixty days an audit of the charity.

(2) Upon authorization of an external audit in terms of sub-section (1), the registration authority may direct immediate possession of the books of account, ledgers or the relevant electronically or manually preserved data of the charity by an officer of the registration authority.

(3) The external auditor shall, upon authorization in writing, complete the audit and submit the audit report within sixty days:

Provided that registration authority may extend the period of sixty days for another thirty days on the basis of a request in writing from the external auditor clearly stating the grounds therein.

(4) In the event of a complaint being found by the registration authority to be vexatious or frivolous, the registration authority may impose an administrative fine of up to twenty-five thousand Rupees on each one of the complainants. In the case of a member of the governing body or other member or an official of a charity being fined under this sub-section, he shall stand removed from the office held by him as well as the membership of the charity. Appeal against an order imposing a fine in terms of this sub-section may be preferred within thirty days of such order to the appellate authority for placing the same before the appellate authority who shall decide it on merit and that decision shall be final

(5) In the event of the external auditor's report indicating serious financial irregularity or irregularities, the registration authority shall provide with the auditor's report and the issues required to be addressed by the charity or any of its office bearers or members who shall be provided due opportunity of being heard. The registration authority, if not convinced with the reply, may initiate an inquiry. If upon completion of its inquiry, the registration authority is satisfied that serious financial irregularity has been committed with respect to the affairs of a registered charity, it may-

- (a) suspend or remove, after recording reasons in writing one or more members of the governing body or such other members or office bearers thereof as appear to be responsible for the irregularities detected; and

- (b) initiate civil as well as criminal proceedings against such office bearer or member, including proceedings for the recovery of the misappropriated assets.

(6) The vacancies caused by removing of the members of the governing body of a charity shall be filled in accordance with the charter of the charity, but in no case later than sixty days from the date of removal of the members of the governing body found responsible for financial irregularities.

(7) The vacancies created as a result of such suspensions shall be filled up in accordance with the charter or bye-laws of the charity.

(8) Any member of the governing body of the charity or office bearer thereof or any other member the charity suspended under sub-section (5) shall not act as office-bearer of the charity during the period of his suspension.

18. Fund raising and public solicitation.— (1) Any charity registered under this Act shall have the authority to indulge into fund-raising activities and seek public solicitation, both local and foreign.

(2) Any charity registered under this Act and undergoing an activity to collect funds shall ensure that-

- (a) purposes of solicitations for donations have accurately and transparently been conveyed to donors for which donations are being collected;
- (b) the projects have actually been carried out for which funds were collected; and
- (c) the beneficiaries are real and that the intended beneficiaries are the ones for whom funds were actually received.

(3) Any person or group of persons, whether the office bearer, employee or a third party, found involved in collection of funds or public solicitation for or on behalf of an unregistered, illegal or proscribed entity, shall be liable to punishment of one year imprisonment or fine of two million Rupees or both.

(4) No individual, organization, society, charity, trust, non-governmental organization (NGO) or non-profit organization (NPO), etc. shall collect or raise funds or donations for charitable purposes as mentioned in Schedule-I from public through any campaign using mass media including electronic, social, digital or print media or through banners, placards, hoardings, public gathering etc. until such society, charity, NGO or NPO etc. is registered under this Act and any violation of this provision shall attract prosecution for the offences as mentioned in Schedule-II.

19. Opportunity of hearing.— (1) No administrative order or action adversely affecting any person or charity shall be passed or taken under this Act unless such person or charity is afforded an opportunity of being heard.

(2) After receiving any complaint in writing from any quarter or if the registration authority itself has information that any of the provisions of this Act has been violated by any person or charity, such person or charity shall be served with a notice for explanation giving therein the opportunity of personal hearing and to respond within fifteen days to that notice. In case of no response, a second notice shall be served. In case that notice is also not responded within ten days of its issuance, it shall be presumed that the person or charity has nothing to say in his or its defence and the decision shall be made ex-parte.

20. Penalties and procedure.— (1) Any person who-

- (a) contravenes any of the provisions of this Act or any rule, regulation or order made thereunder shall be punished accordingly; or
