STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

In recognition of the vital role played by the healthcare, emerging sciences, and technology sectors in fostering the overall growth and development of Pakistan, it is essential to establish a dedicated institution of higher learning that addresses the evolving demands of these critical fields. The establishment of the National University of Health, Emerging Sciences, and Technologies (NUHEST) aims to be a transformative step towards enhancing the nation's capacity in healthcare, research, and technology-driven innovations. NUHEST will serve as a hub for cutting-edge research and innovation in emerging sciences and technologies. The university will bridge the knowledge gap, fostering expertise in emerging areas. The establishment of NUHEST aims to nurture a skilled and empowered workforce, capable of driving Pakistan's progress in healthcare and technology. Through comprehensive training, career development opportunities, and leadership programs, the university will produce professionals who can positively impact the nation's socio-economic development. The creation of NUHEST aligns with the national agenda of elevating the standard of higher education in Pakistan. So, the National University of Health, Emerging Sciences, and Technologies Act seeks to establish a forward-thinking institution that will play a pivotal role in shaping the future of healthcare, research, and technology in Pakistan. The establishment of NUHEST is an essential step towards fostering a healthier, technologically advanced, and prosperous nation.
