"160A	Preaching of Zionism	Shall not arrest without warrant	Summons	Bailable	Not compoundable	Imprisonment for three years, or with forty-thousand rupees fine or with both.	Magistrate of the first class.
160B	Display of Zionism Symbols	Shall not arrest without warrant	Summons	Bailable	Not compoundable	Imprisonment for two years, or with thirty-thousand rupees fine or with both.	Magistrate of the first class."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The term "Zionism" was coined by Nathan Birnbaum in the year 1890. It was started as an ethnic and religious movement, and later on converted into a political movement on Semitism, which endeavours to gather Jews around the world and attain a homeland in the land of Israel.

Zionism is an ethnic, religious and political school of thought, which adopt extremist and strict ways and means to attain their objective. There is no doubt, Pakistan presented a combination of religious harmony and tolerance for all religions, casts and creeds, but supremacy and sovereignty of Allah and Islam is the basis of the Constitution of Pakistan, and being a Muslim State, it should never allow display of symbols depicting Zionism, for spreading unrest in Pakistan. Hence, in the light of above, the said amendment has been brought.

2. This Bill is aimed to achieve the above-said objective.
