plight of the common man. Ms. Nadia Saqib claimed that she didn't receive a call from the worthy Senator and has also lost previous record due to repetitive wrong passcodes. Senator Tallal Chaudhary exclaimed that the present motion has caused an embarrassment for me as being the member of ruling janta and the subject respondent is lady officer who herself is well acquainted with him for last many years , also her husband , currently working with C.M Punjab knows me very well. They must have called me before they reached here before the committee. Secretary parliamentary affairs intervned the matter very positively asserting with the didactic pieces to secretary health government of Punjab miss Nadia Saqib, for holding the public office in a proactive manner and possessing a great deal of the respect for parliamentarians. The Secretary Health Government of Punjab miss Nadia Saqib realized the matter and confessed that this lack of communication was the misdemeanor on her part and at the part of her office who failed to communicate her incessant calls of honorable member. However, she apologized for her unprofessional behavior. The Committee disposed of the matter by accepting the apology of the secretary health government of Punjab miss Nadia Saqib taking lenient view with the direction to be cautious ahead especially with reference to the privileges of the members of parliament.

5. Direction/Decision: - The Committee disposed of the matter by accepting the apology of the secretary health government of Punjab miss Nadia Saqib taking lenient view with the direction to be cautious ahead especially with reference to the privileges of the members of parliament.
