MOTION FOR DISPENSATION OF RULES IN ORDER TO MOVE A RESOLUTION

1. Sherry Rehman, motion under rule 263. I hereby moved under Rule 263 of the Rules of Procedure and Conduct of Business in the Senate, 2012, that the requirements of Rules 26, 29, 30 and 133 of the said Rules be dispensed with in order to enable the House to move and pass a resolution on Iqbal Day.

The Motion was put to the House and Adopted.

Resolution moved by Senator Sherry Rehman regarding 148th birth anniversary of Dr. Allama Muhammad Iqbal “Recognising the immense and enduring legacy of poet, philosopher and great thinker, Dr. Allama Muhammad Iqbal, on his 148th birth anniversary and his pivotal role in awakening the spirit of Muslims of the Indian subcontinent. Acknowledging him as the poet of the East and the architect of the vision for a separate Muslim homeland in British India, a vision solidified in his 1930 Allahabad address,

Affirming that his poetry, philosophy and political thought continue to inspire the nation and its youth, embodying ideals of self-realisation, the concept of khudi, unity and courage, his intellectual legacy which will continue to serve as a beacon of guidance for future generations,

Committed to upholding the principles of liberty, equality and justice that were central to his vision, the Senate of Pakistan hereby resolves to honour the enduring contributions of Dr. Allama Muhammad Iqbal by promoting his philosophy in educational curricula and public discourse across the nation,

Calls upon all citizens, particularly the youth, to embrace Iqbal's message of self-belief, courage and the pursuit of excellence to build a strong and prosperous Pakistan, Urges a renewed commitment to the spirit of unity and brotherhood, as articulated in Iqbal's poetry, to overcome internal and external challenges and work for the collective progress of the nation and the Muslim world,

Encourages government, civil society and educational institutions to organise and support events, seminars and cultural activities that reflect and celebrate the life and teachings of Dr. Allama Muhammad Iqbal, Reaffirms the national resolve to work towards a just, humane and progressive society based on the principles of freedom, dignity, mutual respect as envisioned by Iqbal, Lastly, decides that the observance of Iqbal Day will be used not only as a day of remembrance, but also as a day of active recommitment to the ideals that were powerfully articulated by Iqbal for the betterment of all humanity”.

The Resolution passed by the House unanimously.
