3. The Committee considered the said matter in its meeting held on 7th April 2026. It was informed that a formal response and apology had been submitted by the Establishment Division. In its written response, the Establishment Division acknowledged the complaint regarding non-responsiveness to telephone calls and WhatsApp messages sent by Senator Syed Waqar Mehdi. It emphasized that Barrister Nabeel A. Awan holds parliamentarians in the highest regard and respects the constitutional status of the Senate of Pakistan.

4. The response termed the incident a matter of genuine regret and clarified that no intentional disregard or negligence was involved. Barrister Nabeel A. Awan tendered a sincere apology, stating that the lapse was unintentional and occurred during a period of intense official engagements, including Departmental Promotion Committee and Selection Board meetings.

5. It was further highlighted that, for the first time, the Establishment Division processed and decided promotion cases of approximately 500 officers during this period. These responsibilities, along with other official duties, contributed to the communication lapse. Barrister Awan assured the committee that he takes full responsibility for ensuring prompt communication with members of Parliament in the future and confirmed that corrective measures have been implemented. He reiterated his apology and expressed hope that the committee will consider the matter resolved.

6. Direction/Decision: - The Committee disposed of the matter by accepting the plea of pardon of Mr. Nabeel Ahmed Awan, Secretary Establishment Islamabad.
