RESOLUTIONS

72. SENATOR SAMINA MUMTAZ ZEHRI, to move the following resolution:-

"The House expresses grave concern over persistent weaknesses in the investigation and prosecution of gender-based violence, including rape, honour killings and other serious offences such as murder, which frequently result in case failures due to deficient investigation, weak prosecution, inadequate forensic evidence, broken chains of custody, delays and poor coordination among criminal justice institutions.

The House observes that such failures disproportionately affect poor and vulnerable victims and their families, who often lack the resources to pursue prolonged legal proceedings, obtain independent legal assistance or withstand intimidation and pressure.

The House, therefore, calls upon the Federal Government, in collaboration with the Provincial Governments, to strengthen criminal investigation and prosecution systems; establish specialized and adequately trained teams for serious offences; ensure timely forensic examination and preservation of evidence; strengthen witness and victim protection; provide effective legal assistance to indigent victims and their families; and establish accountability mechanisms for established negligence or professional misconduct resulting in the failure of serious criminal cases.

The House further recommends regular publication of prosecution and conviction data relating to serious offences, including reasons for acquittals and case failures, to identify and address institutional weaknesses while safeguarding judicial independence and the right to a fair trial."

73. SENATOR ABID SHER ALI, to move the following resolution:-
