

RESOLUTION NO. 233

“Today, December 23 is the 15th death anniversary of Malika-e-Tarannum, Madam Noor Jehan. Madam Noor Jehan was an icon of culture, with an amazing personality and presence, and a God-gifted talented voice, which has few parallels in the South Asian subcontinent. She was a source of joy and inspiration for millions, whether it was the 1965 war when she was a morale-booster for the Pakistani Nation, or her rendering of various verses of National poets which promoted a national literature through her unique talent. And, above all, she was a warm and colorful personality, whose fans and admirers crossed borders and boundaries. The Senate recommends that to commemorate her contribution and memory, the Government may establish a Madam Noor Jehan National Academy of Music, so that her work remains immortal, and continues to inspire future generations.”
