

RESOLUTION NO.18

"This House severely condemns the disrespect shown to and invectives used against the Holy prophet (peace be upon him) his Holy wives and his Holy companions in the book titled "SATANIC VERSES" written by Salman Rushdi, a resident of London and demands that to punish the PENGUIN, the publishers of this book, the Government of Pakistan should ban the entry of all of its publications in the country till they withdraw all copies of this book and tender apology to the Muslim world. The meeting further demands that the Government should put pressure on British and United States Governments through diplomatic channel and ask them to exercise their powers for stopping the publication of this book."
