

RESOLUTION NO.94

"The Senate of Pakistan:

Conscious of the grave threat posed by terrorism and extremism,

Reaffirming Pakistan's firm commitment to effectively fight the scourge of terrorism and extremism,

Reaffirming also Pakistan's determination to strengthen bonds of brotherhood and close collaboration with Afghanistan,

1. Expresses deep regret over recent threatening statements by the Afghan President.
2. Condemns the cowardly attack on the Indian Embassy in Kabul and rejects the baseless allegations leveled against Pakistan in that regard.
3. Also condemns the bomb blast outside the Pakistan Consulate General in Herat on 31st July and urges the Afghan Government to urgently take all necessary measures to ensure the security of the personnel and premises of Pakistan's diplomatic and consular missions in Afghanistan.
4. Expresses satisfaction at the meeting between the Prime Minister of Pakistan and the President of Afghanistan during the 15th SAARC Summit held on 3rd of August at Colombo and stresses the need for the two governments to cooperate closely to overcome the challenges posed to the security and stability of both countries by terrorism and extremism."
